COOLIDGE'S NEW CABINET ALMOST COMPLETE

NOMINATION OF CHARLES C. WARREN LACKS SENATE CONFIRMATION

OATH TO KELLOGG ADMINISTERED BY HIS FRIEND PIERCE BUTLER

(By United Press)
Washington, March 5.—With the exception of an attorney-general, President Coolidge's new cabinet was completed and ready for business today.

Frank B. Kellogg of Minnesota was formally sworn in as Secretary of State at 9:30 a. m., succeeding Charles Evans Hughes. His old friend, Pierce Butler of St. Paul, associate justice of the supreme court, administered the oath.

William M. Jardine of Kansas took the oath of office as Secretary of Agriculture, succeeding Harlan F. Stone who was elevated to the supreme court, is still pending before the senate, which is expected to confirm it in the special senate session beginning today.

The nomination of Charles C. Warren of Michigan to be attorney-general, succeeding Harlan F. Stone who was elevated to the supreme court, is still pending before the senate, which is expected to confirm it in the special senate session beginning today.

CABINET HOLDS FIRST MEETING ON FRIDAY

Washington, March 5.—The cabinet perhaps with Warren in his intended place will hold its first meeting Friday at the White House. The line-up is considered temporary by Capitol observers because of persistent rumors that Kellogg and Secretary of War Weeks will retire before the year is ended.

Kellogg is not in the best of health and it is believed he will retire this summer. President Coolidge is expected to promote Warren from the attorney-generalship if he is confirmed to the state portfolio. Weeks is expected to retire after a long political campaign and Col. Theodore Roosevelt may be his successor.

The president's chances of obtaining satisfactory men for the cabinet were enhanced somewhat by his signature of the congressional salary increase bill which also boosted the pay of twelve cabinet members as well as the vice president and presiding officer of the senate and the house from $12,000 to $15,000 a year, effective today.

DENNISTOUN SCANDAL AROUSES LONDON SOCIETY

(By United Press)
London, March 5.—Trial of the Dennistoun scandal which already has dragged in the name of the late General Sir Stephen Cowans who was quartermaster general of the British army during the world war has aroused popular interest equalling that of the case of the mysterious "Mr. A" which rocked the capital a few weeks ago.

Mentioned in the action brought by Mrs. Dorothy Muriel Dennistoun against her former husband was the name of the late quartermaster general which caused a tremendous sensation. General Cowans was one of the outstanding figures of British gallantry in the war and a breath of scandal on his name came as a great surprise.

Mrs. Dennistoun in reply to a question by the judge named the general as the man with whom she lived at her husband's suggestion in order that he might gain preference in military service. Mrs. Dennistoun denied on the witness stand that she had had illicit relations with another man a few weeks after her marriage.

GEORGIA OFFICIALS SEEK SCULPTOR INDICTED FOR BREAK- ING MODELS

STONE MOUNTAIN MEMORIAL WORK HAS BEEN HALTED

(By United Press)
Atlanta, Ga., March 5.—Armed with requisition papers, a Georgia official will leave for Greensboro, N. C., tomorrow in an effort to bring back Gutzon Borglum, fugitive sculptor, indicted for destroying models for the Stone Mountain Memorial.

Borglum will have a hearing in Greensboro Saturday on a writ of habeas corpus which he took out last week following his arrest there. It is expected he will fight extradition. If Governor McLane of North Carolina honors the requisition, Borglum will be brought here to face charges of felony. Borglum has admitted he destroyed some of the models and carried others away.

Meanwhile friends admirers of the deposed sculptor rushed to his defense. The United Daughters of the Confederacy and Rev. H. Lyons, one of the leading ministers of the South, implored that the controversy between Borglum and the Memorial Committee be ended that Borglum be invited to return to complete the memorials.

66,000 FAIL TO REGISTER AUTOS

DELINQUENT MOTORISTS OWE STATE $49,500 WEDNES- DAY

Sixty-six thousand motorists in Minnesota owed the state $49,500 in penalties Wednesday for not having obtained their 1925 automobile licenses, J. P. Bengston, assistant secretary of state, announced.

The penalties for these unregistered cars, Mr. Bengston pointed out, will increase at the rate of $16,500 daily until March 20. After that date each car will be penalized at the rate of $2 per month.

While there were 90,000 unregistered cars when the period allowed by the state legislature for registration without penalty closed Saturday, it was found that 15,000 applications were in the mail postmarked not later than Saturday. No penalties were attached to these applications, Mr. Bengston said.

Up to Tuesday night the state had collected $3,500 on 9,000 late applications. Of this number 4,000 registered Monday, each paying 25 cents penalty, and 5,000 registered Tuesday, each paying 50 cents penalty. The penalty on Wednesday was 75 cents and will increase 25 cents a day until March 20.

Guy Howard, in charge of registration in Hennepin county said that his branch office has collected approximately $425 in penalties from 1,200 Minneapolis motorists. There are still about 7,000 unregistered cars in the city and suburbs, he said. —Minneapolis Tribune.

TWO LUNATICS CONTINUE TO HOLD THE FORT

WATCHFUL WAITING CONTINUES ON PART OF THE SHERIFF AT BELLEFONTAINE

WHEN HE CLOSED HIS EYES, THEY SMUGGLED IN GROCERIES

(By United Press)
Bellefontaine, O., March 5.—At noon today authorities were no nearer capturing Harry and Ray Wren than they were three days ago when the brothers fortified themselves in their farm home near here. With a fresh supply of groceries smuggled into the house during a period of laxity on the part of the guards, the Wrens are now better prepared to protect themselves against officers seeking them to serve them with lunacy warrants.

Sheriff Wooley continued his policy of watchful waiting hoping to avoid a battle by taking the beleaguered brothers by a ruse in an unguarded moment.

A motorist who passed the Wrens home today said he saw Harry Wren sitting in a front window with a shotgun across his knee. No one has seen Ray since yesterday.

SHERIFF AND TEN DEPUTIES OVERPOWER THEM

Bellefontaine, O., March 5.—The seizure of the Russvian farm house where Harry and Ray Wren held out against the law for three days came to a sudden end today. Slipping up on the alleged lunatics as they ventured out into a pasture back of the barn, Sheriff Wooley of Logan county and ten deputies overpowered the Wren brothers and took them into custody.

KELLOGG TAKES OVER THE STATE DEPARTMENT TODAY

LARGE VARIETY OF FOREIGN PROBLEMS AWAITS HIS ACTION

COOLIDGE TO BEAR A LARGE BURDEN IN DECIDING COURSE

(By United Press Staff Correspondent)
Washington, March 5.—Frank B. Kellogg hung up his hat in the Secretary of State's office today, faced a pile of important documents on the desk, cast a longing glance out the window to the Washington monument and the Potomac, and then set to work.

He started the diplomatic wheels of the new Administration in motion by calling in Under Secretary Joseph Grew, the four assistant secretaries and various departmental heads, and inviting them to remain and help him as ably as they had served with Secretary Hughes. They accepted.

Although it is generally believed here that Kellogg accepted the chief Cabinet post only for a year, with the intention of then retiring from public life, he gave no intimation of this today when he received his staff and the press.

Kellogg in appearance and temperament is unlike his vigorous and intellectually militant predecessor, who for four years conducted the foreign affairs of the nation almost single-handed. Apparently the new secretary intends to let President Coolidge share much of the burden of initiating policies and making critical decisions.

Criticism of Kellogg has died down since the announcement of his appointment in January. His record as ambassador during the last year to Great Britain has been one of quiet achievement, his critics admit.

He is credited with ironing out many of the difficulties between the various political delegations and the bankers at the London conference, which launched the Dawes plan for collection of German reparations and European stabilization. At the recent Allied financial conference to allocate reparations payments in Paris, he headed the American delegation which overcame Allied objection and secured 2 1/2 per cent of the Dawes fund to cover American war claims against Germany.

Pending Problems
Many major problems of foreign policy have been allowed to pile up by Hughes during the last two months, pending the arrival of the new secretary. Though the President is known to be giving careful personal attention to these matters, Kellogg is expected to go over the latest department files on these problems and, on the basis of his recent European experiences, advise Mr. Coolidge as soon as possible. Among the more important are:

1. The President's proposed Washington Arms conference, which is expected to meet this year, probably in the autumn.

2. The debts owed this country by France, Italy and other allies, which have not yet funded.

3. Relation of this government under the Paris agreement and Dawes plan to alleged foreign entanglements connected with Allied military occupation of Germany and contemplated Allied "security pacts."

4. Russian relations, and the ap-

WORK OF THE 68TH CONGRESS IS REVIEWED

OUT OF SCORE OF COOLIDGE RE- COMMENDATIONS, BUT TWO BECAME LAWS

GROUNDWORK, HOWEVER, LAID FOR EXTENSIVE WORK THIS SESSION

(By United Press)
Washington, March 5.—The smoke of battle cleared away from the halls of Congress today revealing casualties to most of the president's legislative program.

Out of a score of specific domestic recommendations made by Mr. Coolidge to the session of the 68th Congress last December, two became laws. These bills provided for the relief of the supreme court jam and partial correction of the laws.

Administration leaders claimed, however, that a groundwork of legislation along the lines proposed had been well laid and that every feature of the Coolidge program has been mapped into tentative legislation to come before Congress next December or possibly before a special session in September or earlier.

The only outstanding pieces of legislation were the postal bill increasing the salaries of postal workers by $68,000,000 a year and increasing postal revenues by $60,000,000 and the measure increasing the pay of congressmen from $7,500 to $10,000 a year.

Muscle Shoals, the first measure regulation requested by the president was allowed to die in conference after consuming more time than any other bills. It is, however, in a form acceptable to Mr. Coolidge and leaders hope to pass it in the new congress in which the administration republicans have a great majority. Taxation was totally ignored.

pointment of a commission to negotiate with Moscow, leading to probable recognition.

5. Far eastern problems growing out of the civil war and anti-foreign sentiment in China, Japanese suspicion of the United States, the potential Asiatic Alliance of Russia, China and Japan, and the unratified Far Eastern treaties of the First Washington Arms conference.

6. Latin-American questions, including withdrawal of American Marines from Haiti and Nicaragua, the treaty with Panama, the regularization of relations with the revolutionary government of Chile.

7. Relation of the United States to international activities of the League of Nations, including its proposed disarmament conference, its conferences on control of traffic in white slaves and arms hitherto participated in by America, and its opium conferences from which this country has just withdrawn.

With the exception of a changed Russian policy, leading to eventual recognition, the Coolidge-Kellogg foreign policy is expected to follow along the general lines set by Hughes. The increased power of William E. Borah, as the new chairman of the important Senate committee on foreign relations, however, will have an important effect on these policies, it is believed.

500 PILGRIMS FROM BOSTON AT ST. PETER'S MASS

(By United Press)
Rome, March 5.—Five hundred pilgrims from Boston headed by Cardinal O'Connell attended solemn high mass at St. Peter's today.

The mass was celebrated by Cardinal Merryval who also administered Holy Communion.

The occasion was the first time in history that a delegation of pilgrims was headed by an American Cardinal.

BALL AT CLOSE OF INAUGURATION DAY IS BRILLIANT

MORE THAN 4,000 GUESTS PRE- SENT INCLUDED VICE PRESI- DENT AND GOVERNORS

ALSO ALL THE MILITARY AND NAVAL HIERARCHY OF NATION

(By United Press)
Washington, March 5.—Inauguration Day was brought to a close by a ball which was a brilliant spectacle last night. More than 4,000 guests ranging from Vice President and Mrs. Dawes through all the military and naval hierarchy to visitors from all over the country danced through the highly decorated ball room of the main floor of the hotel until early morning. President and Mrs. Coolidge did not attend.

Governors of the states attending the inauguration were the honored guests. Heralded by the blowing of trumpets the governors marched down the corridor to the ball room.

Governor Nellie Taylor Ross of Wyoming was a center of interest. Vice President and Mrs. Dawes arrived late and took their places in the official box as the dancing began. All the cabinet officers and their wives, naval officers and army officers occupied boxes surrounding those occupied by Secretary of State Hughes and his successor, Kellogg. Hughes drew a round of applause when he entered the box with his daughter, Gene Elizabeth.

State Treasury Shows Nice Monthly Balance

St. Paul, March 5.—Minnesota's governmental finances are in the pink of condition.

This is revealed in the monthly report of Henry Rines, state treasurer, made public today.

At the close of business on March 1, the state's revenue fund out of which governmental expenditures are paid, showed a balance of $4,945,780.

The total of all state funds, including the revenue fund, is announced as $12,199,867. This shows an increase from $7,813,528 as of February 1 for all state funds, to $12,199,867 as of March 1. The increase for the month is largely accounted for by reason of receipt of the railroad companies gross earnings taxes which are receivable at this time of year.

Japanese Borrowing

(By United Press)
Tokyo, March 5.—Three loans to be floated by Japanese hydro-electric companies in America soon are being arranged here now by representatives of financial houses in the United States. The loans total $45,000,000. They are for the Diado Electric Company, the Toho Hydro-Electric Company and the Ushigawa Hydro-Electric Company.

London, March 5.—British women now are wearing men's high white collars, stiff-fronted shirts and white waistcoats with a bow tie. The newest necklace novelty is a string of glass beads with a small electric light as a pendant, which makes the beads sparkle at night.

OLD LEADERS SAY THAT IT JUST CAN'T BE PUT THROUGH

IT WOULD ROB SENATE OF MUCH OF ITS EFFECTIVE- NESS

CLAIM IDEA HAS OFTEN BEEN ADVANCED, BUT NOTHING HAPPENED

(By United Press)
Washington, March 5.—The bomb which Vice-President Charles G. Dawes exploded in his inaugural address to the senate demanding that the time-worn rules be revised to expedite business will be ineffective, leaders in both republican and democratic sides of the senate believed today. Dictators of policy in the senate said that to shear the senate of its ability to hold up legislation would be to rob the body of its effectiveness.

Senator Charles E. Curtis, republican floor leader, and Senators Smoot of Utah, Moses of New Hampshire and Jones of Washington, his aides in matters of senate legislation, are unanimous in the opinion that it would be impossible to carry out Dawes' suggestion. They pointed out the idea had been advanced many times in recent years but has never been carried to a successful conclusion.

COOLIDGE TO SEND MESSAGE TO SENATE

Washington, March 5.—President Coolidge will send a message to the senate today outlining the subjects he wishes considered in the special session.

Congressional leaders assumed that adjournment would be taken at noon until 2 p. m. to permit the president to write his message. Until the message is received from the White House, senate leaders are unable to state what business will be put before them.

Persistent rumors have been circulated among the senators that the president might urge consideration of the Harding-Hughes world court which has been held up nearly two years.

SENATOR MOSES IS PRESIDENT PRO TEM

Washington, March 5.—Senator George Moses, New Hampshire republican, was chosen president pro tempore of the senate today by republican senators in caucus.

The entire list of officers, including Senator Curtis as republican leader, was re-elected. This action occupied all the available time and committee assignments were postponed until tomorrow. None of the four senators, LaFollette, Brookhart, Ladd or Frazier, who are to be ousted as republican committee members, attended the conference.

COOLIDGE SENDS WARREN NOMINATION TO SENATE

Washington, March 5.—President Coolidge today sent to the special session of the senate the nomination of Charles Beecher Warren of Chicago to be attorney-general. Warren's nomination was sent to the last session of the senate, but not confirmed.

The president also sent to the senate the nomination of Harry S. New of Indiana to be postmaster-general. The postmaster-general's confirmation was the only nomination of the old cabinet to be sent to the new senate. The postmaster-general is required to be nominated every four years, but the others are not.

6. Latin-American questions, including withdrawal of American marines from Haiti and Nicaragua, the treaty with Panama, the regularization of relations with the revolutionary government of Chile.

7. Relation of the United States to international activities of the League of Nations, including its proposed disarmament conference, its conferences on control of traffic in white slaves and arms hitherto participated in by America, and its opium conferences from which this country has just withdrawn.

With the exception of a changed Russian policy, leading to eventual recognition, the Coolidge-Kellogg foreign policy is expected to follow along the general lines set by Hughes. The increased power of William E. Borah, as the new chairman of the important Senate committee on foreign relations, however, will have an important effect on these policies, it is believed.

500 PILGRIMS FROM BOSTON AT ST. PETER'S MASS

(By United Press)
Rome, March 5.—Five hundred pilgrims from Boston headed by Cardinal O'Connell attended solemn high mass at St. Peter's today.

The mass was celebrated by Cardinal Merryval who also administered Holy Communion.

The occasion was the first time in history that a delegation of pilgrims was headed by an American Cardinal.

BALL AT CLOSE OF INAUGURATION DAY IS BRILLIANT

MORE THAN 4,000 GUESTS PRES- ENT INCLUDED VICE PRESI- DENT AND GOVERNORS

ALSO ALL THE MILITARY AND NAVAL HIERARCHY OF NATION

(By United Press)
Washington, March 5.—Inauguration Day was brought to a close by a ball which was a brilliant spectacle last night. More than 4,000 guests ranging from Vice President and Mrs. Dawes through all the military and naval hierarchy to visitors from all over the country danced through the highly decorated ball room of the main floor of the hotel until early morning. President and Mrs. Coolidge did not attend.

Governors of the states attending the inauguration were the honored guests. Heralded by the blowing of trumpets the governors marched down the corridor to the ball room.

Governor Nellie Taylor Ross of Wyoming was a center of interest. Vice President and Mrs. Dawes arrived late and took their places in the official box as the dancing began. All the cabinet officers and their wives, naval officers and army officers occupied boxes surrounding those occupied by Secretary of State Hughes and his successor, Kellogg. Hughes drew a round of applause when he entered the box with his daughter, Gene Elizabeth.

State Treasury Shows Nice Monthly Balance

St. Paul, March 5.—Minnesota's governmental finances are in the pink of condition.

This is revealed in the monthly report of Henry Rines, state treasurer, made public today.

At the close of business on March 1, the state's revenue fund out of which governmental expenditures are paid, showed a balance of $4,945,780.

The total of all state funds, including the revenue fund, is announced as $12,199,867. This shows an increase from $7,813,528 as of February 1 for all state funds, to $12,199,867 as of March 1. The increase for the month is largely accounted for by reason of receipt of the railroad companies gross earnings taxes which are receivable at this time of year.

Japanese Borrowing

(By United Press)
Tokyo, March 5.—Three loans to be floated by Japanese hydro-electric companies in America soon are being arranged here now by representatives of financial houses in the United States. The loans total $45,000,000. They are for the Diado Electric Company, the Toho Hydro-Electric Company and the Ushigawa Hydro-Electric Company.

London, March 5.—British women now are wearing men's high white collars, stiff-fronted shirts and white waistcoats with a bow tie. The newest necklace novelty is a string of glass beads with a small electric light as a pendant, which makes the beads sparkle at night.

OLD LEADERS SAY THAT IT JUST CAN'T BE PUT THROUGH

IT WOULD ROB SENATE OF MUCH OF ITS EFFECTIVE- NESS

CLAIM IDEA HAS OFTEN BEEN ADVANCED, BUT NOTHING HAPPENED

(By United Press)
Washington, March 5.—The bomb which Vice-President Charles G. Dawes exploded in his inaugural address to the senate demanding that the time-worn rules be revised to expedite business will be ineffective, leaders in both republican and democratic sides of the senate believed today.

Dictators of policy in the senate said that to shear the senate of its ability to hold up legislation would be to rob the body of its effectiveness.

Senator Charles E. Curtis, republican floor leader, and Senators Smoot of Utah, Moses of New Hampshire and Jones of Washington, his aides in matters of senate legislation, are unanimous in the opinion that it would be impossible to carry out Dawes' suggestion. They pointed out the idea had been advanced many times in recent years but has never been carried to a successful conclusion.

COOLIDGE TO SEND MESSAGE TO SENATE

Washington, March 5.—President Coolidge will send a message to the senate today outlining the subjects he wishes considered in the special session.

Congressional leaders assumed that adjournment would be taken at noon until 2 p. m. to permit the president to write his message. Until the message is received from the White House, senate leaders are unable to state what business will be put before them.

Persistent rumors have been circulated among the senators that the president might urge consideration of the Harding-Hughes world court which has been held up nearly two years.

SENATOR MOSES IS PRESIDENT PRO TEM

Washington, March 5.—Senator George Moses, New Hampshire republican, was chosen president pro tempore of the senate today by republican senators in caucus.

The entire list of officers, including Senator Curtis as republican leader, was re-elected. This action occupied all the available time and committee assignments were postponed until tomorrow. None of the four senators, LaFollette, Brookhart, Ladd or Frazier, who are to be ousted as republican committee members, attended the conference.

COOLIDGE SENDS WARREN NOMINATION TO SENATE

Washington, March 5.—President Coolidge today sent to the special session of the senate the nomination of Charles Beecher Warren of Chicago to be attorney-general. Warren's nomination was sent to the last session of the senate, but not confirmed.

The president also sent to the senate the nomination of Harry S. New of Indiana to be postmaster-general. The postmaster-general's confirmation was the only nomination of the old cabinet to be sent to the new senate. The postmaster-general is required to be nominated every four years, but the others are not.

SENATE RESENTS DAWES REMARKS ON SENATE RULES

Washington, March 5.—Resentment over the inaugural speech of Vice President Charles G. Dawes demanding of the senate that it revise its historical rules, broke on the floor when the upper house convened in special session today.

In the car with Mr. Baker were John P. Burke, William Burke, George Evans and Morris Haas, all farmers living east of the city.

It is said that Mr. Baker turned out for a car coming toward Brainerd, whose lights blinded him, and he did not see the team and wagon in his path until too late to avoid the collision.

Mr. Schwendeman had brought a load of cord wood to the city and was returning to his home. The Ford is said to have smashed the rear wheels of the wagon, throwing the driver out, injuring his leg. The team ran away and was caught a mile east of the scene of the accident.

The Ford's fenders on the left side and that side of the car's body were badly damaged. The car was driven back to the city and the accident reported to the officials. Mr. Schwendeman was brought to Brainerd in another car, where he was given medical attention.

BOND ISSUE FOR NEW HIGH SCHOOL

Brainerd Board of Education Prepares to Place Same Before Taxpayers of City

CITIZENS TO VOTE ON SAME

$350,000 Bonds Proposed to be Voted on at the Spring Election

The Brainerd board of education, at its regular meeting on Monday night, took up the matter of placing before the taxpayers of the city a bond issue to be used for the purchase of a site, the erection and furnishing of a new high school building.

The necessary steps were taken in passing a resolution as drawn up by the city attorney, D. H. Fullerton, to give the citizens an opportunity to vote upon a $350,000 bond issue for the new high school, to be erected upon the site previously selected at the last election.

The discussion upon this subject was very lengthy, the resolution as first considered provided only for the purchase of the site and the erection of a suitable building. The matter of including in this resolution the financing of the furnishings of the building brought forth considerable comment and debate among the board members, and was finally made a part of the resolution that was adopted. This bond issue will be placed before the voters at the spring election in April.

Superintendent W. C. Cobb was re-elected superintendent of the Brainerd public schools for another year at the same salary that he received last year. The fiscal year of the superintendent is from August 1st to July 31st.

Mr. Cobb came to the Brainerd schools in his present capacity in September, 1929. During his tenure of office the school system of the city has been very much enlarged and improved. Attendance in all departments, especially in the high school, has been greatly increased, until at present the facilities for properly taking care of this branch is entirely inadequate, and the above bond issue, if passed, will provide sufficient quarters for the high school for some time to come, it is believed.

The building committee reported that Contractor J. E. Jackson has completed his work of placing steel ceiling in the assembly room of the high school building. This was made necessary because the plaster on the ceiling was becoming loose and would have fallen in a very short time. The committee recommended that the ceiling in the assembly room be replaced by a new ceiling, and to award the contract.

The fuel committee reported that twenty tons of screened Yough, lump coal has been purchased from William Nelson for the Harrison building, Mr. Nelson being the lowest bidder, and on motion the committee's action was ratified.

The chairman of the health and sanitation committee asked that his committee be permitted to make tests and examination for eligible to the opportunity rooms of the Lowell and Riverside buildings. On motion carried, the committee with the school nurse, was authorized to hold these tests and examinations. There are more children for these rooms than there are facilities for their care, and the matter is becoming somewhat of a problem, the committee's report showed. The report further revealed the fact that milk is being furnished to under-nourished children of the Lowell school, through the efforts of the parent-teachers association of that building.

The secretary of the board reported that a check has been received from the treasurer of the senior class of the high school, amounting to $150 in payment of a set of bleachers for the high school gymnasium, which is the memorial provided by the class of 1925.

The secretary further reported that he had received an offer of $300 for the old house at 601 South Fifth street, and he was empowered to make the sale at that price. Two different bids have been called for this house, in the past, but those received were rejected in each case by the board as being unsatisfactory.

The treasurer of the board submitted his quarterly report covering the general account, the sinking fund account, and the U. S. Veterans Bureau account for the quarter ending January 31st. This report was received and referred to the finance committee for checking.

Superintendent Cobb submitted his monthly report on the condition of the book room for the month of February, which was accepted and placed on file.

The superintendent also submitted his monthly report on the condition of the schools, which was received and the suggestions noted therein approved by the board. The teachers committee was empowered to employ an additional teacher for half time work, as suggested in the report, which will be published in the Dispatch.

A bill, introduced in the state legislature by the Minnesota School Board Association, legalizing certain actions of the association as to the expense of delegates and the collections of dues, was read, and the secretary was instructed to write the representatives from this district asking them to assist in every way possible the passage of this bill.

All members of the board were present at Monday evening's meeting. President George D. LaBar presiding. The usual gist of bills was allowed and the board adjourned at a late hour.

Ascalon Commandery, Knights Templar, of Brainerd to Attend Convention

LOCAL COMMITTEE NAMED

Ladies Given a Special Invitation to be Present, Special Entertainment For Them

Members of Ascalon Commandery, No. 16, Knights Templar, of Brainerd, are already laying plans to attend the 16th annual convocation of the Grand Commandery of Knights Templar of Minnesota, which will be held at Mankato on May 20th to 21st.

This is the first time in many years that the annual convocation has been held in Southern Minnesota, and it is believed fitting and appropriate that every commandery in the state should be well represented for the following reasons:

1. To give an impetus to Templarism in Southern Minnesota.
2. Out of respect to the grand commander, who resides in Mankato.
3. Mankato Commandery will stage an entertainment that is sure to please all who attend.

It has been suggested that the commander of each commandery appoint a committee to create an interest in this meeting, and to secure a large number to make the pilgrimage.

The ladies are given a special invitation to be present and are promised a hearty welcome and special entertainment.

The local commandery will begin plans at its next meeting to have a good representation at Mankato on May 20th and 21st.

A Checking Account as An Investment

ALMOST every investment—money put out for profit—requires cash in hand.

A checking account is one of the best investments an ambitious person can make.

It mobilizes his cash for gainful trading, even bringing its owner a profit during the process of accumulation.

It gives one a very secure, happy feeling to have money in bank. That is one reason why ambitious people are keenly intent on building bank accounts.

An opportunity comes along for profit making. It requires cash. The person with cash can buy advantageously, perhaps at a discount. The bank account permits profit taking, which is profit making.

Another opportunity comes for a profitable deal, requiring more than cash in hand. A loan is needed. The banker is consulted. He looks up the checking account. It has been satisfied.

From the time one gets his first check book his financial vision begins to lengthen.

The above chart shows the trend of wholesale commodity prices since the year 1895. During the period of higher prices the last several years, charges for telephone service have increased much less than has the average cost of goods and services people buy.

The Cost of Service

ON the loyalty and skill of the human element depends the character of telephone service. The providers of this service must not only meet the market prices for materials. They must also maintain at any cost a high standard of workmanship.

Because of advancing prices, the telephone dollar goes only half as far as it did ten years ago. More than three-fifths of this dollar is necessarily expended for wages. Less would neither attract nor hold the high-grade workers essential to maintain America's standards.

That Bell telephone rates have advanced much less than other prices is largely due to economies in methods and apparatus that have been developed and introduced. It is also because the the proportion of operating plant built at pre-war prices is still large, though this is steadily decreasing because of new construction made necessary by the nation's telephone needs.

MINNESOTA WISHES NO BLUE LAWS

UNDER the heading, "No Blue Laws," the St. Paul Daily News discusses a bill before the legislature which has the intention of closing up theatres and places of amusement, no doubt including baseball top, on Sundays.

One trouble with legislatures is that they like to "legislate against." If they would pass more constructive measures and fewer laws "to prevent," their work would be far more beneficial.

The present Minnesota legislature has under consideration a bill to close up theatres and places of amusement on Sundays. Its proponents, we suppose, believe such action would drive the folks who like to see a show on Sunday evening to church, or at least force them to stay home and read the Bible.

But it won't. There is no way to legislate people into halls of religion. Even if there was, it would be impossible to legislate them into the right state of mind. The church must perform that function itself.

The man who works eight or 10 hours every week day is entitled to his day of rest, recreation and amusement on Sundays. A part of the day is sufficient for his religious betterment.

Relaxation is as necessary to life as food itself. It man's innocent pleasures are taken away from him, he'll break the laws and find illicit pleasures. That's human nature.

The poker game will succeed the movies. Petting parties will take the place of the showhouse. Blind pigs will be crowded with the idle.

The experiment of closing all legitimate places of amusement has been tried in many states. Its result usually has been an era of gambling houses and unrestricted license.

Minnesota wants no blue laws.

THE ABATEMENT LAW

BRAINERD has not had a taste of the abatement law which carries real teeth for offenders of liquor laws. People who own property and people who rent property which figures largely in liquor nuisance proceedings and other liquor cases, as shown by the court dockets, may some day find themselves brought into district court and asked to explain things.

If the charge of abatement holds, the property in question can be padlocked for a year and owner and tenant lose the use of the premises and the house stands vacant.

Twelve complaints in abatement proceedings were recently filed in district court in St. Paul. The charges cited against tenant and owner included possession of liquor or manufacturing liquor. Many a tenant liquor law offender and the owner of property closing his eyes to offenses committed on his premises get a severe jolt in the pocketbook when the courts padlock the house in question and the tenant loses his quarters and the owner loses his rent for a year.

With constant repetition of liquor law offenses, abatement proceedings sometimes offers the only method to bring offenders to the consciousness that liquor traffic is not relished by a neighborhood.

JOE BUSH IN FINE SHAPE

JOE BULLET BUSH of Brainerd, veteran pitcher of the Yankees now pitching ace of the St. Louis Browns, has arrived at the training camp at Tarpon Springs, Fla. He has been at Hot Springs for preparatory training and is in excellent condition.

As Bush told the world over WCCO on January 30, his arm is in splendid shape and he expects to have a fine season. Bush's arrival virtually completes the Browns' pitching squad.

Unlike Babe Ruth who is trying to reduce a mountain of fat accumulated during the winter, Bush is as hard as nails without an ounce of superfluous fat. St. Louis is situated in a torrid zone when compared with damp and cold New York and other eastern climate. Bush always was a hot weather pitcher. When other batteries were near the sunstroke line, Bush was steaming along merrily and pitching like a house afire.

We anticipate some great games when Joe Bush, in a Brown uniform, faces his old teammates in the Yankee crowd. Bush has a line on every player's ability, he knows their eccentricities, their batting habits and it will give Joe as well as his Brown associates many happy returns of the day to lick the stuffing out of Miller Huggins' crew.

NO LISTENING POST

GENERAL DAWES is to be no mere listening post in the senate. He will take an active part in guiding its destinies and will see that business is carried on and that obstructive measures are discarded.

We see where the senatorial club is in for some excitement. Old senatorial customs, for instance, which give a Senator permission to speak on any subject at any time and as long as he wishes, may be rudely jarred. We can see General Dawes ruling that the matter discussed is entirely out of order and has nothing whatever to do with the question at issue.

In fact, we see as a news center the stately, dignified, pompous senate may actually be of more value than the rough and tumble house. An injection of kindly common sense may work wonders with the august body of the senate and we know no one more fitted for the job of physician and director than our new Vice President and President of the Senate, General Dawes.

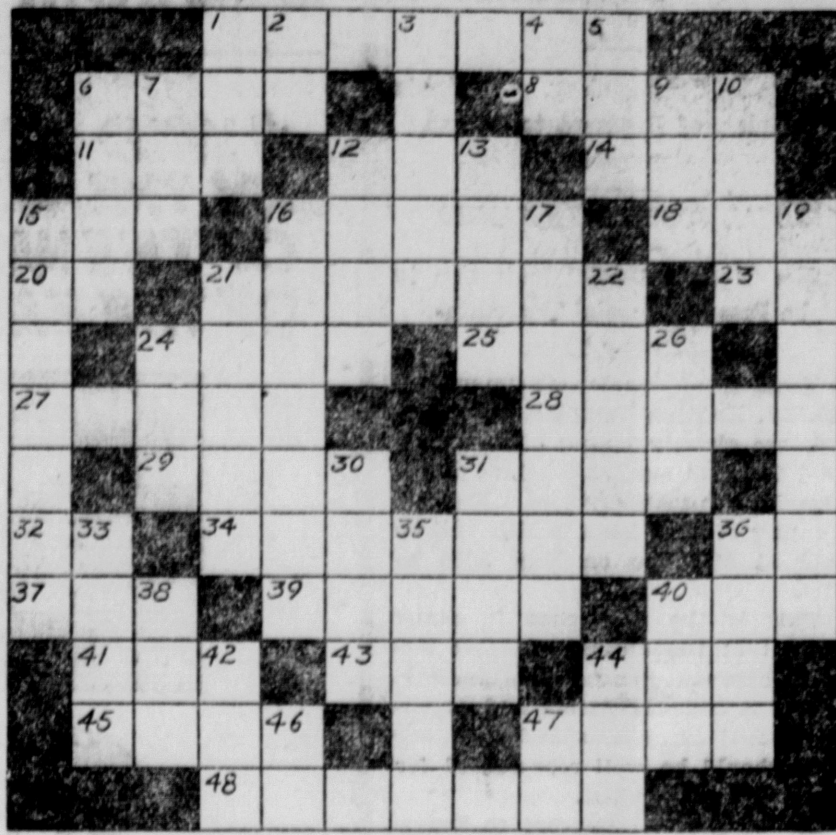

VETERAN ENGINEER ANSWERS LAST CALL

JOHN J. GAVIN, aged 67, of Staples, one of the oldest engineers in the United States, answered his last call yesterday morning and died at the Northern Pacific hospital in St. Paul. He was well known in Brainerd and throughout the Northwest.

Funeral services will be held at 9 o'clock Friday morning at the pro-Cathedral in Minneapolis and interment will be in Calvary cemetery, St. Paul.

THE Reds' highest priced recruit showing his batting ability at Orlando, Florida, recently caused the old timers to open their eyes and mouths. Charlie Dessen took any kind of pitching, batted the ball to all parts of the field, and like a pool player, called his shots.

IF SKIN BREAKS OUT AND ITCHES APPLY SULPHUR

Just the moment you apply Mentho-Sulphur to an itching, burning or broken out skin, the itching stops and healing begins, says a noted skin specialist. This sulphur preparation made into a pleasant cold cream, gives such a quick relief, even to fiery eczema, that nothing has ever been found to take its place.

Because of its germ-destroying properties, it quickly subdues the itching, cools the irritation and heals the eczema right up, leaving a clear, smooth skin in place of ugly eruptions, rash, pimples or roughness.

You do not have to wait for improvement. It quickly shows. You can get a little jar of Rowles Mentho-Sulphur at any drug store.—Adt

New Way to Quickly Stop Dangerous Cough

It is almost criminally careless not to properly attend a persistent cough, which by seriously weakening the system lays you open to far more dangerous infections. For by a very simple treatment you can stop the coughing, snells almost instantly and often relieve the stubbornest cough in 24 hours.

This simple treatment is based on a remarkable prescription known as Dr. King's New Discovery for Coughs. You simply take a teaspoonful and hold it in your throat for 15 or 20 seconds before swallowing it, without following with water. The prescription has a double action. It not only soothes and heals soreness and irritation, but it quickly loosens and removes the phlegm and congestion which are the direct cause of the coughing. The prompt relief of the heaviest cough seems almost magical.

The prescription is highly recommended for coughs, chest colds, hoarseness and bronchitis, and is wonderful for children's coughs and spasmodic croup—no opiates or other harmful drugs. Economical, too, as the dose is only one teaspoonful. At all good druggists. Ask for

UNDER the heading, "No Blue Laws," the St. Paul Daily News discusses a bill before the legislature which has the intention of closing up theatres and places of amusement, no doubt including baseball too, on Sundays.

One trouble with legislatures is that they like to "legislate against." If they would pass more constructive measures and fewer laws "to prevent," their work would be far more beneficial.

The present Minnesota legislature has under consideration a bill to close up theatres and places of amusement on Sundays. Its proponents, we suppose, believe such action would drive the folks who like to see a show on Sunday evening to church, or at least force them to stay home and read the Bible.

But it won't. There is no way to legislate people into halls of religion. Even if there was, it would be impossible to legislate them into the right state of mind. The church must perform that function itself.

The man who works eight or 10 hours every week day is entitled to his day of rest, recreation and amusement on Sundays. A part of the day is sufficient for his religious betterment.

Relaxation is as necessary to life as food itself. It man's innocent pleasures are taken away from him, he'll break the laws and find illicit pleasures. That's human nature.

The poker game will succeed the movies. Betting parties will take the place of the showhouse. Blind pigs will be crowded with the idle.

The experiment of closing all legitimate places of amusement has been tried in many states. Its result usually has been an era of gambling houses and unrestricted license.

Minnesota wants no blue laws.

THE ABATEMENT LAW

BRAINERD has not had a taste of the abatement law which carries real teeth for offenders of liquor laws. People who own property and people who rent property which figures largely in liquor nuisance proceedings and other liquor cases, as shown by the court dockets, may some day find themselves brought into district court and asked to explain things.

If the charge of abatement holds, the property in question can be padlocked for a year and owner and tenant lose the use of the premises and the house stands vacant.

Twelve complaints in abatement proceedings were recently filed in district court in St. Paul. The charges cited against tenant and owner included possession of liquor or manufacturing liquor. Many a tenant liquor law offender and the owner of property closing his eyes to offenses committed on his premises get a severe jolt in the pocketbook when the courts padlock the house in question and the tenant loses his quarters and the owner loses his rent for a year.

With constant repetition of liquor law offenses, abatement proceedings sometimes offers the only method to bring offenders to the consciousness that liquor traffic is not relished by a neighborhood.

JOE BUSH IN FINE SHAPE

JOE BULLET BUSH of Brainerd, veteran pitcher of the Yankees now pitching ace of the St. Louis Browns, has arrived at the training camp at Tarpon Springs, Fla. He has been at Hot Springs for preparatory training and is in excellent condition.

As Bush told the world over WCCO on January 30, his arm is in splendid shape and he expects to have a fine season. Bush's arrival virtually completes the Browns' pitching squad.

Unlike Babe Ruth who is trying to reduce a mountain of fat accumulated during the winter, Bush is as hard as nails without an ounce of superfluous fat. St. Louis is situated in a torrid zone when compared with damp and cold New York and other eastern climate. Bush always was a hot weather pitcher. When other batteries were near the sunstroke line, Bush was steaming along merrily and pitching like a house afire.

We anticipate some great games when Joe Bush, in a Brown uniform, faces his old teammates in the Yankee crowd. Bush has a line on every player's ability, he knows their eccentricities, their batting habits and it will give Joe as well as his Brown associates many happy returns of the day to lick the stuffing out of Miller Huggins' crew.

NO LISTENING POST

GENERAL DAWES is to be no mere listening post in the senate. He will take an active part in guiding its destinies and will see that business is carried on and that obstructive measures are discarded.

We see where the senatorial club is in for some excitement. Old senatorial customs, for instance, which give a Senator permission to speak on any subject at any time and as long as he wishes, may be rudely jarred. We can see General Dawes ruling that the matter discussed is entirely out of order and has nothing whatever to do with the question at issue.

In fact, we see as a news center the stately, dignified, pompous senate may actually be of more value than the rough and tumble house. An injection of kindly common sense may work wonders with the august body of the senate and we know no one more fitted for the job of physician and director than our new Vice President and President of the Senate, General Dawes.

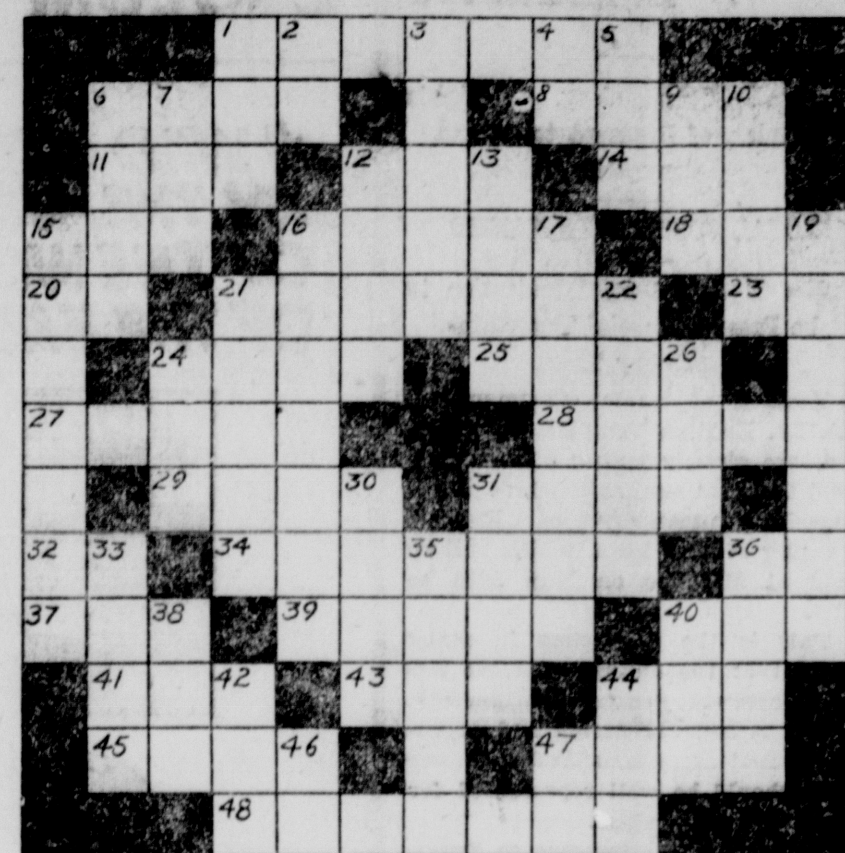

VETERAN ENGINEER ANSWERS LAST CALL

JOHN J. GAVIN, aged 67, of Staples, one of the oldest engineers in the United States, answered his last call yesterday morning and died at the Northern Pacific hospital in St. Paul. He was well known in Brainerd and throughout the Northwest.

Funeral services will be held at 9 o'clock Friday morning at the pro-Cathedral in Minneapolis and interment will be in Calvary cemetery, St. Paul.

THE Reds' highest priced recruit showing his batting ability at Orlando, Florida, recently caused the old timers to open their eyes and mouths. Charlie Dessen took any kind of pitching, batted the ball to all parts of the field, and like a pool player, called his shots.

NEW CLUE IS FOUND IN THE McCLINTOCK CASE

WOMAN SAYS MAN CAME TO HER
LABORATORY ASKING ABOUT FEVER GERMS

SHE IS BROUGHT TO HEADQUARTERS
AND ASKED TO IDENTIFY THE MAN

(By United Press)
Chicago, March 5. — Detectives were sent out this afternoon with instructions to bring William D. Shepherd, foster father of Billy McClintock, to the State Attorney's office in connection with a new clue in connection with the death of the "millionaire boy."

John Sparaboro put in charge of the investigation by State's Attorney Robert E. Crowe, announced he had located a woman conducting a laboratory who identified Shepherd's picture, saying a man resembling the picture came to her several months ago for information concerning typhoid fever germs and their culture. The woman was brought to headquarters and Shepherd called for to make identification positive.

CELERY BLANCHED IN 6 TO 10 DAYS

DISCOVERY OF U. OF M. MEN
LIGHTENS TASK AND SAVES
TIME AND LABOR

A new method for blanching celery "while you wait," that is, in from six to 10 days, as compared with present day methods of hilling and boarding up, which take from three to six weeks, has been discovered by Dr. R. B. Harvey and L. O. Regeimbal, plant physiologists of the university department of agriculture. Indeed, there is a possibility that by the new system celery can be blanched sufficiently for the trade while it is in transit in tight cars.

Dark cloudy weather and low temperatures last summer held back the celery crop, in some instances frost appearing before the natural time for blanching had arrived. It occurred to Dr. Harvey that some method whereby this green celery could be blanched quickly would be of commercial advantage. Ethylene gas has been used for several years in causing oranges and lemons to turn yellow. Dr. Harvey believed it would do as much for celery and entered upon a series of experiments at University Farm and at the university substation at Fens in St. Louis county.

"On treating celery placed in containers with ethylene gas the leaves and stalks lose their green color and become a rich golden yellow with the exact appearance of celery which has been very carefully and fully blanched by hilling or in storage," says Dr. Harvey. "The stalks which have been treated with ethylene seem more brittle, less stringy and sweeter than celery which has not been treated. The gas has no bleaching action and is not poisonous. It seems merely to hasten the natural blanching process which would occur if the plants were hilled up or placed in storage in darkness. "Commercial applications of this method should prove of value to celery growers in Minnesota. It would be possible to put celery upon the market early, as soon as it had reached a size suitable for marketing, removing the distasteful green flavor by blanching in ethylene for six days. The actual time for keeping the plants in the gas may be decreased to three days since there is an after effect, that is, when the blanching is once started in ethylene it goes on even after the celery is taken out of the gas."

Dr. Harvey adds that the expense for gas is trifling—not to exceed 50 cents for an entire carload of celery. As the treatment is still in the experimental stage, he warns that it should not be attempted by celery growers without the aid of the experiment station. The concentrations of the gas required for blanching are far below the danger limit for explosions, but the gas is inflammable and care must be used in keeping fire away from tanks and containers.

"QUEST OF THE PINK PARASOL"

Discontented Little Girl And Discontented Little Poppy Change Places in Operetta

AT WHITTIER "JAMBOREE"

Will be Presented in Whittier Building on Saturday Evening

A discontented little girl and a discontented little poppy are given permission to change places in the story of "The Quest of the Pink Parasol" the elaborately staged operetta to be a part of the Whittier jamboree that takes place in that building on Saturday evening.

The little girl, who usually waters the poppies, forgets to tell the poppy to do this in her place, and the poppies die.

The gardener, who had been to town all day to buy his wife a hat, finds he has lost the trimmings. Just as he decides he will have to cut some of the poppies for trimmings, he finds the poppy maid stealing back to her garden home. She has found the pink parasol she had always wanted but longs for her own garden home.

The fairy queen appears and at their earnest pleading, she makes right all the difficulties and restores all the poppies to life and to a place in her court, where they had been fairies.

The gardener is magically given trimmings for his wife's hat, and the little girl finds that she is glad to be a girl rather than a flower.

The cast of characters in this beautiful operetta are as follows:

Fairy Queen—Kathryn Sheets.
Poppy Maid—Helen Sheets.
Little Girl—Jane Wilson.
Gardner—Kathryn Albright.
Poppies—Helen Bane, Louise Clausen, Doris Geist, Glennadean Mahood, Betty Robertson, Ruth Nicholson. Scene, a garden, with pergola, garden bench, vines, fence, etc.

The poppies, the queen and the gardener are in costume, the poppies in red and green, presenting a striking appearance.

The gardener's part is humorous, and will afford many a laugh for the audience. Four of the characters sing solos, and there are a number of pretty, catchy choruses, including a poppy dance. The dialogue, with the solos, tells the story of the operetta.

There will be other numbers on the big entertainment program to be held in the auditorium of the school, and which in all, will consume about one hour. In addition to this, there will be booths on the first floor, and

Gloria Swanson Fascinating in Gorgeous Gowns

Gloria Swanson caused many a heart to palpitate at the Paramount studio recently when she appeared in a $100,000 bridal costume for her latest picture, "Her Love Story." To be exact, the outfit cost just $98,000 and some "odd change" for shoes, stockings, etc. A tidy sum for one's wedding raiment, but then Miss Swanson was acting the role of a Balkan princess and was being married to a King! Allan Dwan, the director, decided that the outfit was to be the best obtainable in New York City, and it was.

Crowning the veil of antique duchess lace—an heirloom of the sixteenth century—was a coronet of pearls and diamonds set in platinum. The wedding gown was a gorgeous creation of fabrique metalac embroidered in gold and jewels. The train, which had a sweep of six and one-half yards by four yards, was fashioned of fabrique d'or and was elaborately encrusted with jewels, with the royal crest of gold in the center. The entire train was set off with a wide band of ermine.

What a gorgeous Gloria she was in this outfit! With her hand raised a fur cape "creation." Sables! The high she marched to the tune of a familiar wedding march right into the hearts of all who were privileged to watch the wedding scene of the picture. She will do the same thing for those who see her on the screen at the New Park tonight and Friday. And that's not the half of it!

Hedstrom's Orchestra at New Park Sunday Night

Hedstrom's orchestra has been engaged to play at the New Park Sunday night in conjunction with the "special" picture "Frivolous Gal," starring Eugene O'Brien, Mae Bush and Ben Alexander. Regular prices will prevail.

Mix Learns About Women From "Vamp"

"It's said to be no deep secret why men leave home; but I discovered 'why men return home'—sometimes," says Tom Mix, the cowboy favorite of many million film fans throughout the world.

Mix made this discovery in "Oh, You Tony!" his newest William Fox starring vehicle which will be shown for the first time at the Lyceum Theatre tonight and Friday.

Tom Mix, as Tom Masters, rough western ranch owner, has to go to Washington on business, and there falls in with the Capital's fastest fast set. Trying to "go the pace"—and succeeding—he falls for a sinuous adventuress, Countess Maya Bulbulara, vampily played by Dolores Rouse, who lures him into Washington's smartest women's clothing emporium.

Here the uneasy cowboy, trying to look and act like a "perfect gentleman," is forced to sit beside the Countess while alluring mannikins parade past with the latest Paris models, one more expensive than the other.

Then a tall, slim mannikin comes swaying in wearing the last word in this outfit! With her hand raised a fur cape "creation." Sables! The Countess snuggles up to him.

"Want it? All right," says Tom.

"I'll buy. How much?"
"Only $5,000; a bargain," says the lynx-eyed venduse.

The high cost of clothing for "countesses" is one reason "why men return home," Mix murmured.

The World Peace meeting, under the auspices of the committee on International Co-operation to Prevent War of the League of Women Voters at the Chamber of Commerce Tuesday evening was a decided success from the standpoint of educational and inspirational value. It was a pity, however, that this meeting couldn't have been held in the Park theatre with a capacity audience. Perhaps the fact that only about fifty people were sufficiently interested in the subject to attend this meeting explains the reason why the Senate has delayed action so long on the World Court, and why President Coolidge felt moved to give this subject the place of honor in his inaugural speech.

The entertainment feature of the meeting was the playing of three very pleasing selections by the Boys' band. This was their first public appearance under their new leader, El A. Page, and their good work certainly did him much credit. This is an organization that deserves support and encouragement from the entire community. The boys are diligent, they play well and they have good leadership. Under these circumstances they are a decided asset to the community, and should receive both moral and financial support.

The first address of the evening was by Father Walter Remmes, a thoroughly inspiring and hopeful talk on conditions as they are compared with those in the past and a very eloquent plea for the future. He gave a very vivid picture of the horrors and sufferings of all the peoples involved in a war, showed how under the advance of science civilization might be utterly destroyed and discussed the futility of so settling the affairs of nations.

Then he gave the historical background for the desires for world peace, and held up to the pessimist the progress that had been accomplished since Christianity came to be the guiding influence of civilized nations. The era preceding Augustus showed that for every year of peace in the seven centuries, there were seven years of war. Contrast with that the history of our own United States. Through the years of our existence, we have had eleven years of peace to each one of war. With the nations backing the World Court, the proportion must inevitably become larger and man may look hopefully forward to an age when Christ's injunction to everyone to love his fellow man may be enforced.

We who profess Christianity should remember what the Prince of Peace taught. When His advent in to the world was heralded by the angels, they sang "Peace on Earth," and when He rose from the dead, His first words to His assembled disciples were of peace.

He gave other examples from the Scriptures proving that the world has advanced in the idea of peace since the days of Naboth and his vineyard. Then a man might be deprived of his life and goods with no court to which to appeal. Since that time the world has advanced so far that the poorest may appeal to a court for redress of grievances, and national and international affairs come up before courts for settlement. With all this advance down the centuries, who may not hope that in the coming years all the world may have adopted the principles of the Saviors, and ceased to murder and pillage, and that men and nations may "love one another."

Father Remmes' address was well and thoughtfully organized, and delivered with an eloquence and feeling that showed how thoroughly he believed what he said.

Judge Walter E. Wieland's Address
The second speaker, Judge Wieland, gave a brief history of the abortive attempts to have international disputes settled by law and justice, instead of by force of arms. The first suggestion of a world court came from a Frenchman, in 1395. In the 17th century, another Frenchman published a book setting forth the same idea. But it wasn't until the latter half of the 19th century that the idea began to take shape.

President McKinley and Secretary Hay, in their instructions to the American delegation to the first Hague Conference, in 1899, urged the establishment of an international court.

Although the Conference modified the American plan considerably, the so-called Permanent Court of Arbitration resulted. This court has handled eighteen cases, since its organization, but it is not permanent, and not a court. It is merely a panel, each state being entitled to appoint four members. It merely serves as a group from which arbitrators may be chosen.

In 1907, the American delegates to the second Hague Conference were instructed by President Roosevelt to work for "a permanent tribunal composed of judges who are judicial officers and nothing else, who are paid adequate salaries, who have no other occupation, and who will devote their entire time to the trial and decision of international causes by judicial methods and under a sense of judicial responsibility."

The speaker said that whatever one might think of Roosevelt as a political leader, everybody would grant that he was thoroughly American and extremely jealous of our national sovereignty and independence and yet in these instructions he exactly describes the Permanent Court of International Justice that is now functioning and is popularly known as the World Court.

Another paradox in connection with our refusal to support this court is the fact that it was our own statesman—Elihu Root—who proposed that the judges be elected by the Council and Assembly of the League of Nations. In fact, said Judge Wieland, while Root could not be said to dominate so distinguished a group of jurists as those who were invited by the Council of the League of Nations to draw up a plan for the court, it was noticeable that his suggestions were almost always followed. The reason Root suggested this method of selecting judges was, because this was the rock on which the second Hague Conference split. The competition between the equality of states on the one hand and the political dominance of the great powers on the other, produced an impossible deadlock. The speaker illustrated the difficulties of the situation by reference to the deadlock in our own Constitutional Convention which was broken by the formation of an upper house where each colony, however small, should have equal representation. It was the same sort of compromise that Root suggested in leaving the election of judges to the joint council and Assembly of the League.

Besides having had a representative on the group of jurists who drew up the plan for this court, one of our foremost jurists—John Bassett Moore—was chosen as one of the eleven judges.

In May, 1922, the League of Nations made it possible for any country to become a contributing member of the World Court, by simply signing the protocol. Thus, instead of the court being a creature of the League of Nations, said Judge Wieland, it really came into being through the signing of this protocol or treaty, although the preparatory steps were taken by the League, authority for which had been given it by article 14 of the Covenant.

By the signing of this protocol, nations may submit any questions to it that do not involve domestic policy or territorial integrity, but they are under no compulsion to do so unless they choose to sign the compulsory arbitration clause. About twenty nations have signed this, which binds them to take all of their international troubles to this court.

Judge Wieland said that the Court had handed down eight decisions, all of which have been accepted without question.

He illustrated the kind of questions that were brought before the court by explaining its decision in the case of Great Britain versus France in the matter of the nationality decrees issued by France in Tunis and Morocco. France claimed a right to draft its own subjects, and these decrees defined as "nationals" of France "any individual born (in Tunis or Moroccan French Zone) of foreign parents one of whom was born there." The question of jurisdiction had to first be decided and after the Court decided that it was a case that could properly come before it, France consented to submit the matter to the Court's decision and cheerfully abided by an adverse one. This made such nationality decrees inapplicable to British subjects.

Another decision compelled the German government to give free access to the Kiel Canal to the ships of Great Britain, France, Italy and Japan, which decision was based on the treaty of Versailles.

A third decision was in favor of Germany and against Poland regarding a dispute over the right of Polish nationality, from lands conveyed to them by the German Coloni-

EASTERN STAR SOCIAL CLUB

First Meeting to be Held This Evening in the Masonic Parlors

The first meeting of the Eastern Star social club will be held this evening at the Masonic parlors.

These show that the court actually does decide disputes that may easily lead to war, and therefore performs a very useful function.

The only nations that have not signed the World Court Protocol are Peru, Mexico, Abyssinia, Turkey, Germany, Soviet Russia and the United States. If a nation, like an individual, is judged by the company it keeps, said Judge Wieland, we had better join the Court and get into better company.

This has been urged by Presidents Harding and Coolidge, Secretaries Root and Hughes, and all that stands in the way of such action are the votes of a few irreconcilables in the Senate.

Such interest was aroused in the subject of World Peace that sixteen women signified their desire to give it further study. If any others desire to join such a class and will telephone their names to Miss Genevieve Flannagan, she will send for the text books (which will cost about 29c) and notify them of the time and place of such meetings. The first meeting will be held soon, and the discussions will be led by Miss Mary Tornstrom and Miss Flannagan. Others will be asked to look up certain definite questions and report on them.

The League wishes to express its appreciation to those who took the trouble to prepare the Chamber of Commerce rooms for this meeting, as the redecorating had to be interrupted and considerable inconvenience suffered in order to accommodate the ladies at this time.

"WORLD PEACE" MEETING OF WOMEN

League of Women Voters And

REV REMMES, JUDGE WIELAND

Boys Band Furnishes Pleasing Numbers Appreciated by All

The World Peace meeting, under the auspices of the committee on International Co-operation to Prevent War of the League of Women Voters at the Chamber of Commerce Tuesday evening was a decided success from the standpoint of educational and inspirational value. It was a pity, however, that this meeting couldn't have been held in the Park theatre with a capacity audience. Perhaps the fact that only about fifty people were sufficiently interested in the subject to attend this meeting explains the reason why the Senate has delayed action so long on the World Court, and why President Coolidge felt moved to give this subject the place of honor in his inaugural speech.

The entertainment feature of the meeting was the playing of three very pleasing selections by the Boys' band. This was their first public appearance under their new leader, El A. Page, and their good work certainly did him much credit. This is an organization that deserves support and encouragement from the entire community. The boys are diligent, they play well and they have good leadership. Under these circumstances they are a decided asset to the community, and should receive both moral and financial support.

The first address of the evening was by Father Walter Remmes, a thoroughly inspiring and hopeful talk on conditions as they are compared with those in the past and a very eloquent plea for the future. He gave a very vivid picture of the horrors and sufferings of all the peoples involved in a war, showed how under the advance of science civilization might be utterly destroyed and discussed the futility of so settling the affairs of nations.

Then he gave the historical background for the desires for world peace, and held up to the pessimist the progress that had been accomplished since Christianity came to be the guiding influence of civilized nations. New York, March 5.—Tom Gibbons may have his claim to the succession to the heavyweight championship disputed, but there can be no denial that he is the most willing fighter in the business. His willingness to do anything asked of him at a time when champions and leading challengers refuse to take any kind of a chance, has given him a unique and a most favorable position in the profession.

"It is a pleasure to do business with Tom Gibbons," Tex Rickard said recently. "He is always fair about purses, he never asks anything but an even break and his word is better than a contract. If every boxer was as much of a real sportsman as Gibbons, the game would never be in any danger."

Gibbons had a slow, hard time developing himself from a brother of the great Mike Gibbons to the outstanding challenger in the heavyweight class and one of the best drawing cards in the game. He made himself by having a "Yes" ready for anything fair.

It has cost him money, but it has made him one of the most popular boxers that ever pulled on a glove.

When he started his campaign for a return bout with Dempsey he said that he would meet anyone in the heavyweight class to prove his right for another chance at the title.

He tried to get a bout with Jack Renault, the Canadian, who was throwing publicity challenges at Dempsey.

"Before you fight Renault, you ought to lick Kid Norfolk," Leo Flynn, Renault's manager, said.

Norfolk was the stand-off member of the Flynn stable.

"All right," Gibbons said, "make out the papers."

Flynn's bluff was called and he couldn't get out of it. Gibbons met Norfolk and knocked him off and Flynn lost one of the best bread winners in his string.

Gibbons came to New York again with a challenge for Dempsey and he was asked—"Why don't you fight Harry Wills?"

"I will," Gibbons said.

And Wills was caught in a tight place that he had no desire for.

Gibbons tried to get a bout with Gene Tunney, the American light heavyweight champion, and Tunney turned pale and found a lot of excuses.

He then announced that he couldn't make 175 pounds without trouble and that he was going to stay in the heavyweight class. Tunney, relieved at hearing this, challenged Gibbons and said that he had been "bluffing."

Gibbons replied—"All right, we're ready," and Tunney went out on that golf course and hasn't been heard from since.

SO DECLARED ON EVE OF THE TOURNAMENT

BRAINERD SCHEDULED TO PLAY
CROSBY-IRONTON AT AITKIN

AN APPEAL OF DISTRICT COM-MITTEE'S DECISION MAY FOLLOW

(From Little Falls Daily Transcript)

District tournaments throughout the entire state are holding the attention of high school basketball fans. All of the teams have completed their schedules and are marking time this week with their eyes fixed on the district tournaments which will begin the weeding out of the weaker teams and decide the teams which will represent the district at the regional meets.

The tournament at Aitkin promises to be one of the best in the state as in this district the teams are more evenly matched than in any other. Low and close scores have featured practically every district game.

In the opening game of the tournament Friday afternoon Wadena will meet Pine River. These two aggregations are considered the weakest in the district and neither is being given much consideration as a possible winner of the district championship. They are well matched, however, and the tilt should be a good one. Pine River, by its defeat over Staples on the Staples floor, has a slight edge.

Little Falls and Staples will take the floor in the first evening game and the result will determine whether or not Little Falls is to continue in the championship race. Each team has a victory over the other to its credit. Little Falls trimmed the railroaders 19 to 12 on the local floor early in January and Staples returned the compliment with an 8 to 6 win on its own floor February 6. Playing on a large floor, which gives the small forwards an opportunity for fast play, Coach Helland's men should win out.

A last minute obstacle has arisen which threatens the chances of the Crosby-Ironton outfit. Aitkin has protested Woock, Crosby center, and the district committee has sustained the protest. Supt. E. B. Bergquist acted with the committee in place of Supt. Cobb of Brainerd, as Mr. Cobb felt that in as much as Brainerd was the team most vitally concerned in the matter it would be better to have someone else act in his stead. Supt. Bergquist states that it was the unanimous opinion of the committee that Woock had been entered in the Crosby school for the express purpose of athletics as there is an accredited high school in Cloquet, his home town. This is a direct violation of the rules. No complaint was offered earlier in the season as it was generally understood over the district that Woock's parents had moved to California and for that reason he was staying with his brother, the Crosby coach. It is reported that an appeal from the district committee's decision is being made to the state association officers by Crosby-Ironton. Should Woock be declared ineligible, Brainerd's chances for winning out in the first round of the tournament are excellent. With Woock in the Crosby line-up it will be a tough battle and the winner is doubtful. Whether Aitkin will take the floor in the second round against the winner of the Pine River-Wadena, Little Falls-Staples or Brainerd-Crosby tilts is not known. Being lucky enough to draw a bye for the first round Aitkin may be lucky enough to get either Pine River or Wadena for its next opponent. In that event it stands an excellent chance of going into the finals. Both Aitkin and Crosby are credited with wins over Brainerd.

At least twenty-five fans are planning to go to Aitkin for the tournament and it is likely that a good many more will decide to make the trip before the tournament starts. Brainerd and Crosby will have large delegations in attendance and Staples fans are also reported to be showing a keen interest in the event.

In the second game of the Indoor Baseball season, the Graybeards beat the Skunks at the Y. M. C. A. last night, 8-4. The winners bunched their attack in the third and fourth innings, meanwhile holding the pole-cats to only one run in each of four innings, and scoreless in the other three.

The game was a fast one, plenty of snappy playing featuring the work of both sides. The Skunks worked one double play, at the plate.

Fitzharris and Orth did the mound work for the Skunks, with Dieckhaus receiving. Dinan pitched for the winners, with Trelawney catching.

BY 8-4 SCORE

WINNERS IN INDOOR BASEBALL LEAGUE BUNCHED HITS

GAME WAS A FAST ONE WITH MUCH SNAPPY PLAYING

In the second game of the Indoor Baseball season, the Graybeards beat the Skunks at the Y. M. C. A. last night, 8-4. The winners bunched their attack in the third and fourth innings, meanwhile holding the pole-cats to only one run in each of four innings, and scoreless in the other three.

The game was a fast one, plenty of snappy playing featuring the work of both sides. The Skunks worked one double play, at the plate.

Fitzharris and Orth did the mound work for the Skunks, with Dieckhaus receiving. Dillan pitched for the winners, with Trelawney catching.

Tonight the Indians and Skunks play at 7 o'clock, and the Graybeards and Hornets clash at 8 o'clock. Those interested in seeing these games are invited to come. No admission charge.

Growing Older

Many a man who is sentimental about the old swimming hole that was three miles from town, complains bitterly if the bathroom is at the end of the hall.

A MAN alone in a city flat, a group by the farm-house lamp—these, and a million other listeners, held spell-bound by the far-flung voice of Radio.

Amazing, the way Radio is sweeping the country. Almost without parallel—yet not entirely.

For Chesterfield, matching Radio's swift rise, continues to win smokers by thousands in every section of the country. It too, enjoys "coast-to-coast reception."
